Washington DC Policy Seminar Agenda April 15 & 16, 2025 .DOCX
File Edit View Insert Format Tools Help
Share
100% Normal text Calibri 14
Document tabs
Washington DC Policy Sem...
Headings you add to the document will appear here.

of the States facility on both days. Badges and event materials will be available at the check-in table in the Hall of the States lobby on Tuesday morning. Attendees arriving after 11:00 am must check in at the Hall of the States Security Desk.

9:15 – 9:30 AM

WELCOME, INTRODUCTIONS & OVERVIEW

- Amy Williams, NACEP Executive Director
- Dianne Barker, NACEP Deputy Executive Director of Policy and Program Strategy
- Carla Yorke - NACEP Program Development Coordinator
- Sarah Stashkiw - Advocacy Commission Chair
- Alex Perry, Coordinator for the College in High School Alliance

9:30 – 10:15 AM

NAVIGATING YOUR INNER COMPASS

Dianne Lassai Barker, NACEP Deputy Executive Director of Policy and Program Strategy

- In today's rapidly changing world, many of us find ourselves grappling with a sense of uncertainty and confusion. Whether it's national events, personal challenges, or societal shifts, the external chaos often infiltrates our inner worlds, leaving us questioning our values and sense of stability. This workshop offers a space for participants to explore and navigate their current viewpoints, helping to transform discomfort into empowerment.

10:15 – 10:30 AM

BREAK

10:30 - 11:15 AM

NUMBERS, NARRATIVES, AND NEW DIRECTIONS: WORK SHAPING THE NATIONAL DUAL ENROLLMENT LANDSCAPE

Amy Williams, NACEP Executive Director

- Over the past year, new resources, research, and data have challenged long-held assumptions, confirmed long-suspected trends, and introduced new opportunities in dual enrollment. From funding models and credit transfer to student experiences and workforce alignment, these findings are shaping how we at NACEP think about quality, equity, and the future of the field.